

Group presentation of Jigjiga team

1. What are the existing efforts and gaps in gully control near Jigjiga

The existing efforts

- Soil and water conservation activities regional agriculture bureau
- Recreation parks by Jigjiga city administration,
- Research study by Jigjiga university
- SDR-II project WSW
- LLRDP/PCDP project
- ERCS project

Gaps existing

- No integration efforts and joint plans for all stakeholder, everyone is doing its own business
- Lack of proper communication
- Every step should start at community level instead for top to bottom
- Lack of community involvement at any
- Lack of evidence based implementation modalities
- Lack of participatory land use planning approach
- Budget and resource gap
- Lack of data base management
- Lack of awareness raising
- Lack of accountability

2. Who are the stakeholder to this challenge? what do they undertake

- Local Community
- Regional bureaus, Agriculture and livestock, environmental protection bureau, \REGIONAL \PRESIDENT BUREAU, \ministry of agricultural, DRMB, road authority,
- Local elders
- SorPARI
- LLRDP/PSNP/SDR-II
- The media
- Jigjiga University/
- Communication media

3. How to bring cooperation and coordination towards resolving this problem

- ✓ Creating a communication and collaboration platform
- ✓ Develop term of references ToR, and delineate the responsibility and deliverables of stakeholders and actors
- ✓ Assessments, and participatory land use planning, water shade delineation and link livelihood components
- ✓ Establish participatory Monitoring and evaluation system

4. What will be practical steps before the DREAM II conference, and workplans

- Pull the study made by the different stakeholders
- Assess organizational capacity and contributions
- Identify potential man power and special experts
- Invite stakeholders and actors with participation and implementation